Fares will vary according to the day of the week and the length of your trip, but the lowest fares are often on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Please note: Book your flights promptly. Fare specials are priced very competitively, so seats can sell out quickly. Seats may not be available on all flights or all dates of travel. You may need to have flexible travel dates to find these fares.

Here's how to find your lowest fare at delta.com:

Go to Delta.com, and enter airport codes BQK for Brunswick Golden Isles Airport and ATL for Atlanta Hartsfield International Airport. Select the desired travel dates, then indicate a round trip or one-way ticket. Enter the number of passengers on your trip and click on the red arrow on the extreme right side of the menu bar. Available flights and prices will come up and you may select your flight and proceed to purchasing your ticket.

To explore other options to find the lowest price, click on the words "Flexible Dates" in blue letters at the top of the screen. This will take you to a graph that shows extended combinations of dates and fares. To see a wider range of dates, select the 5-week outlook under "Calendar View." When you click on an itinerary, the site takes you to the scheduled flights for those dates. If you are comparing the cost of travel from Brunswick Golden Isles Airport with other regional airports, remember that parking at the Brunswick airport is free!

Basic Economy Fares have certain restrictions: read the limitations carefully. It's easy to make a selection and book your flight—at the best prices available!*
